The screenshot displays a Zoom meeting interface. The main window shows a presentation slide titled "Kyoto University found in 1897, 125th anniversary in 2022 Old Zoological Specimens since 1890 by Prof. Shishido Ichiro". The slide features various images of zoological specimens, including a large mammal, a bird skeleton, and a fossil. A small inset shows a portrait of Prof. Shishido Ichiro. The Zoom interface includes a top bar with participant names (PSUNHM, Kaito ASATO, etc.) and a bottom bar with controls like Unmute, Start Video, Participants, Chat, Share Screen, Record, and Reactions. A chat window on the right shows a message from "Good Morning from Myanmar" and a topic discussion about natural history collection as science infrastructure for research and outreach, dated 23 February 2022, 10:30-12:30. The chat also includes a link to a Google Form and a QR code.
